Jezua Errol Palma

WEB DEV.

I am a Web Developer who thrives at the intersection of logical back-end systems and intuitive front-end design. With a technical foundation in Python, HTML/CSS, and JavaScript, I enjoy collaborating with cross-functional teams to translate business requirements into functional products powered by PostgreSQL. I am driven by a passion for continuous learning, accessible web design, and engineering solutions that scale with user growth.

Work Experience

2024 - Present

Freelance Developer

As a freelance Web Developer, I specialize in building custom, responsive websites and software solutions that prioritize user experience and operational efficiency. Leveraging a technical foundation in Python, HTML/CSS, and JavaScript—often enhanced with frameworks like Bootstrap—I have successfully delivered diverse projects ranging from e-commerce platforms to complex inventory management systems. My approach is rooted in technical excellence, utilizing PostgreSQL for robust data management and Git for seamless version control, resulting in a consistent 95% client satisfaction rate.

Key Skills

- Front-End Development: Proficient in creating dynamic user interfaces using HTML5, CSS3, and JavaScript/TypeScript. Experienced in building modern, responsive web applications with React.
- Back-End Development: Strong expertise in developing robust server-side logic and APIs using Python and Node.js.
- Database Management: Skilled in designing and managing relational databases with PostgreSQL, as well as experience with other systems like MySQL or MongoDB.
- Full-Stack Integration: Capable of building complete web applications from scratch, ensuring seamless communication between the front-end, back-end, and database.
- Responsive & Mobile-First Design: Deep understanding of modern design principles to ensure applications work flawlessly across all device types and screen sizes.
- Adaptability: Proven ability to quickly master new frameworks and technologies to meet specific project requirements as a freelance developer.
